

The Daily Courant.

Monday, January 10 . 1704.

From the Brussels Gazette, dated Dec. 25.

Montpelier, December 11.

THE Deum has been solemnly sung here for the Victory gain'd near Spire, and for the taking of Landau. The Marshal de Montrevel has order'd 8 Troops of Dragoons of the Regiment of St. Severin to march hither from the Upper Languedoc, which part of the Country is very quiet at present; there are now but 4 Troops of Dragoons in it. The Person that goes by the Name of Cavalier, one of the chief Leaders of the Camisars, advanc'd to other day with a Party of those Malecontents within a quarter of a League of Alets, and threaten'd to set the Town on fire, unless his Father and Brother, who are in Prison there, were immediately deliver'd to him; but a Detachment being order'd to attack him, he fled away as soon as they appear'd in sight.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Jan. 2.

Amsterdam, Jan. 4. It may be of Use to Merchants to be made acquainted with the following Order publish'd in France relating to the Commerce between the Neutral Countries and that Kingdom.

A Letter from Monsieur de Chamillart Comptroller General of the Finances, &c. to the Farmers General of the Customs.

Gentlemen,

I Have receiv'd the Letter, written lately by the Sieur Daumay, Director of the Farms at Bourdeaux, to your Company. The second Paragraph of the Order of Council of the 28th of August 1703, the sense of which the Director professes he does not thoroughly comprehend, is to be understood to signifie only such Merchandises as are of the Growth and Manufacture of the Northern Neutral Countries, and such as ordinarily come from thence, namely, Steel of all sorts; Lamb Wool or Polish Wool, and other coarse Wools; Brasi; yellow Amber; Oats and other Corn; Beans and Peas of all sorts; Linseed; Oak, or Firr Logs, Mafts, Planks, and other Timber proper for building Ships, and any other sort of Wood whatever; Tar, Pitch, Cannons, Cannon-Balls, Match, Ashes, Potashes, yellow Wax; Hemp, Copper rough, in Bars, or in Plates; or Copper Pans, or Brasi Pans; Iron in Bars, in Rods, or in Plates; Iron and Brasi Wire, Litharge of Gold and Silver; Furs; Quills for Pens or for Feather-Beds; Stockfish, Sewit, Hogs Lard, Bristles, Skins, Russia Leather, Tin, Blue, Vermillion, Copperas, Blue and yellow Vitriol. the green Vitriol that comes from England is prohibited.

The Intention of the Council is, to admit of the Importation of all Commodities which the Merchants of the Neutral Countries used to import directly from their own Country into France; but not to allow the bringing in of any Commodities of Holland; or any kind of Fish, except Stockfish, to avoid the bringing in any of the Fish catch'd by the Dutch.

For which Reason the Entry of the 8 Bags of Pepper by the Sieur Cloben cannot be allow'd of; for though the Danish East-India Company may bring Pepper to Denmark, 'tis certain they never bring more than just what is us'd in Denmark; and it may happen that under pretext of bringing in the Commodities brought home by the Danish East-India Company, the Merchants may import Pepper and Drugs brought into Europe by the Dutch.

You are therefore to acquaint the Sieur Doumay, that he is to pass nothing but the 12 Bails of Starch imported by the said Sieur Cloben, and that because that Merchant affirms it is Starch made in Denmark. As for the Tape imported by the Sieur Clock, the passing it is absolutely forbidden, because it must needs have been made either at Harlem or Bolduc. And therefore you are to charge the Sieur Daumay to take Care that the said Tape and the 8 Bags of Pepper be shipp'd off again for some Forreign Country.

This Letter is to serve for Instructions to all the other Directors of the Farms, who may be in any Doubt touching the Intention of the said Order of Council.

Sign'd

Chamillard.
